This report by PO Andrew DEPTULA District #6 Day Shift.

On 04-10-2017 at 11:40am Squad 6130, DEPTULA, was sent to investigate a battery at 4843 S 13th St. The victim, _____, was being treated by Bell 481 in preparation for transport to the hospital. _____ had noticeable redness and some small scrapes on her face. She was preoccupied with the medical treatment, and unable to provide much detail, but reported that she had been struck by an unknown male while walking home shortly after 6am. As Bell was ready to leave _____ agreed to be interviewed at the hospital.

DEPTULA then spoke to _____, a friend of the victim, who stated she called _____ at about 10:45am, and noticed she sounded "out of it." Knowing that _____ regularly suffers from _____, she asked if she recently had one. _____ then told her she had been attacked that morning. _____ immediately went to the house to be with her, and called for an ambulance.

_____ relayed what _____ had told her about that morning. _____ regularly attends morning prayer at the Islamic Center at 13/Layton, and walks the approximate one block to her house. The service ends at about 6am, and she immediately began walking home. As she passed the intersection of 13/Barnard an unknown male approached, threw her to the ground, and struck her several times. He did not take anything, or make any statements. She said it was likely _____ did not immediately call because she had a

DEPTULA checked the intersection of 13/Barnard but did not locate any sign of a struggle. A resident of _____, reported she was home, but in bed at 6am. She had her window open, but did not recall any disturbance outside. No surveillance cameras covering the area were located.

DEPTULA then went to St Luke's Hospital to follow up with _____. She had been admitted, and was currently sedated due to another _____ he had while in the ambulance. These _____ are due to a medical condition unrelated to the assault. No interview of _____ would be possible that night.

_____ said _____ often forgets much of what happened immediately before she has a _____ but her memory returns with time. _____ agreed to have _____ contact DEPTULA when she was ready to speak.

On 04-12-2017 DEPTULA met with _____ at her home. _____ was also present. Before a follow up interview began the woman stated they were aware this incident was being reported on the news, and they wanted to make it clear they did not contact the media, they were not the source categorizing this as a "hate crime" and disagreed with the assessment.

_____ was released from the hospital in the late afternoon on 04-11-2017 and initially planned to wait until this morning to meet with DEPTULA about this incident. After being contacted by the media, and hearing how the incident was being portrayed, she called an officer to her home the night of 04-11-2017. The officer listened to her, but having limited information, advised her to continue with the planned meeting with the primary officer this morning.

_____ said she does not believe this was a random attack, and was initially hesitant to contact police, because she immediately suspected it was related to her estranged daughter, _____. Her daughter had divorced, alienated her family, and began a relationship with a woman named _____. She does not believe her daughter would be directly involved, but suspects _____ controls the relationship by intimidating people she does not want involved in _____ life. She describes _____ as being part of "a bad crowd."

She does not have any direct evidence linking [redacted] to this incident.

[redacted] does not have direct contact with [redacted], but occasionally communicates with her through various social media accounts. She last had contact with her daughter about 3 weeks ago. She was in the hospital and [redacted] showed up drunk at 11pm and caused a scene. Her suspicions were raised when she saw that [redacted] attempted to message her the afternoon of 04-11-2017. She believes this type of attack would be an example of the intimidation [redacted] would use to keep people out of her daughter's life. [redacted] admits immediately upon seeing her attacker, before he even approached, she thought of [redacted] "bad crowd."

She described the attacker as a "Mexican" man in his mid 20s with a stocky build. She distinctly recalls a tattoo on one hand, almost sure the right, but couldn't recall what it was. He was wearing a dark sweatshirt with the hood up that had a skeletal print on it. He was holding some sort of metallic object, it may have been a pocket knife, or box cutter, or possibly just keys. His car was an older white 4door with tinted windows.

With regards to the attack [redacted] reported she left at 5am to get to the center early to read. She attended a 5:45am prayer that ended almost exactly at 6am, then walked directly home down 13th St. As she approached Barnard Av she noticed the white car parked just west of the corner on the south side of the street. When she crossed the man exited the driver door and called her over to him as he began to approach her. She said "I don't know you" and continued walking. The man responded "But I know who you are" and grabbed her by the arm of her coat, and threw her to the ground. He immediately began to strike her to the head and body. She shouted "Stop! What do you want?" He responded "This IS what I want" as he continued to hit her. She understood this to mean he just wanted to beat her. [redacted] said the man did not demand anything or attempt to take anything from her. After an estimated minute the man got back into his car and drove away. She thinks he went north on 13th, then west on Layton.

As a result of the attack [redacted] suffered multiple scratches and bruises to her head and face, sore back/ribs, scrapes to her arm, and spent a night in the hospital.

[redacted] showed the clothes she was wearing at the time of the attack. Her hajib was stained with blood that she believes came from her nose. The black nylon down coat had a jagged tear to one arm, and what appeared to be a straight slice down the middle of the back.

CSO Jimmy MORALES-COLON came to the scene and took photos of [redacted] injuries, clothing, and of the street corner where the attack occurred.

[redacted] stated she does wish to cooperate with prosecuting her attacker, should he be identified.

This report is submitted by Detective Vincent FONTE, assigned to the South Investigations Division, Day Shift.

On Thursday, 4/13/17, at approximately 1:30PM, I, Detective FONTE conducted follow up regarding this incident at . At that location I met with the victim in this case, W/F, stated she has lived at that location for the past sixteen years. She stated she attends the Islamic Center and that she goes there every morning to pray between 5:00AM-6:00AM. stated she also used to be employed at the Islamic Center as a custodial worker but she resigned a few months ago because she has which affect her memory and he ability to concentrate on tasks, etc.

Regarding the incident, stated on Monday morning, 4/10/17, she attended morning prayer at the Islamic Center from 5:45AM-6:00AM. She stated afterwards she left and began walking south on the sidewalk towards her residence, which is located about a block away. She stated as she approached W. Barnard Ave. she noticed a man exit a small white 4 door car which was parked just west of S. 13th St. on the south side of the street. stated the man called her over to him by saying, "Hey you, come here." She stated she responded by asking the man if he was referring to her and she said "I don't know you" and she continued walking. stated the man quickly approached her as he responded "I know who you." She stated the man grabbed her by the head and he punched her a few times to the face, causing pain at which time she noticed she was bleeding. stated the man reached over her shoulder and threw her to the ground, causing her glasses to fall off her face. She stated just before she was thrown to the ground she noticed a large tattoo on the top of his right hand. stated she also noticed the man was holding some type of small, hard object in his right hand, which she stated could have been a large key, a razor blade, or possibly a very small knife. She stated while she was down on the sidewalk the man kicked her to the back a few times, causing more pain. She stated the man also used the object in his hand to slice at her upper body causing a couple of tears in her jacket.

She stated because the material of her jacket was thick the object did not penetrate through to her skin. stated as she was on the ground she yelled for him to stop and she asked him what he wanted. She stated the man responded "This is what I want" as he continued to kick her. stated after being attacked the man got back into his car and drove away. She stated to the best of her recollection, the man fled northbound on S. 13th St.

described the suspect as a Hispanic male, mid 20s, 5'06", stocky build with a solid tattoo of an unknown design on the top of his right hand. She stated he was wearing a black hoodie with the hood over his head and the draw string pulled tight so the hood closed to cover most of his face. stated the only part of his body that was exposed were his hands and the cheeks and nose of his face. Upon asking her is she would be able to recognize the suspect if she saw him again she replied that she didn't think she could because she couldn't see most of his face. She described his car as being a "junky" older model white 4 door car, unknown make.

While I was at residence I informed her that I would be showing her a photo array. I provided her with a MPD Supplemental Report on Photo Array Identification Form PC-24 and I had her read the instructions on the form. After reading the form stated she understood photo array procedure and the instructions she read. She signed and dated the form and stated she was prepared to view the photo array. I then provided with eight manila folders, six of which each contained a color booking photo created from Photo Lineup ID #68120. Each photo in the array were booking photos of Hispanic males similar in age and description to the target suspect. H/M, DOB stated she does not feel she was attacked because she is Muslim. It should be noted that contrary to what was reported on the news, according to , the man who attacked her did not try to take her hajib. Although she wears a hajib to cover her head, the style she wears is a thin material that looks similar to scarves commonly worn by elderly females. This style is worn over her head but it does not cover any part of her face.

After viewing the photos contained in all the folders stated that she didn't recognize any of the subjects as the man who attacked her. She stated although she couldn't see the suspect's entire face she knows that he had, "chubby cheeks" and that he was a larger build than all the subjects in the photo array. I pointed out the photo of and asked if she recognized him as someone who knows her daughter. She stated he looked vaguely familiar and that she may have seen a photo of him on her daughter's Facebook page. I also showed her close up photos of the tattoo's on his hands and she stated the they were not the same tattoo that the suspect had on his hand.

stated although she didn't recognize the man, she feels he intentionally targeted her and that this possibly had something to do with her estranged daughter, . She stated she doesn't approve of her daughter's lifestyle and she is appalled by the fact that her daughter recently left her husband and she is now in a lesbian relationship with another woman. She stated the woman her daughter is dating is very controlling and she knows that she ) doesn't approve of her daughter's relationship. acknowledged that she doesn't have any evidence that this attack was in any way related to her daughter or her friends however, she feels that is why she was targeted.
